

BRENDA MCMILLAN

P H O T O G R A P H Y

Hello there!

I am so excited you are considering having Brenda McMillan Photography capture this special time in your life! Whether it is for senior photos, family pictures, or the milestones of your little ones, we would love the opportunity to do your next portrait session. Brenda McMillan Photography is nationally published and has been in business for 10 years. Let me share a little about me. I am a mom to four kids ages 20 to 3 and married to the love of my life for over 22 years. Photography has been my passion since High School. I love to create and I love people! I love to get to know my clients. It is so important for your time with us to be an amazing experience. We customize every session to reflect your individual style. We want you to look back one day at your images and have it bring back wonderful memories!

Talk to me about who you are and what your ideas are for your session. Every session has a consultation to make sure we are planning the perfect session for you! Our studio is located in Old Rosenberg, Texas which is lined with boutiques, old lamp posts and plenty of southern charm for photos! If that isn't the style you are looking for, I have plenty of spots for sessions!

Things I love:

*God, my family, my amazing friends,
the beach, baseball, chocolate, wine,
a great movie, laughing till I cry!*
